The above consists of the plates only (engraved by C. Merian) belonging to the Dutch translation, in 4 vols., of the 'Topographia Galliæ (13 pts.), which forms pts. 17-29 of Merian's 'Topographia Germaniæ,' all the text being wanting. The plates have been bound together in 2 vols., in obl. 2°. Two only of the four original Dutch title-pages have been preserved, both having the title within an engraved border. In the case of the first vol., the original Dutch title has been cut out from within the engraved border and a MS. one, reading 'Topographia Galliæ. Tom. I,' etc., pasted in in its stead. In the case of the second vol., a MS. title reading 'Topographia Galliæ. Tom. II,' has been partly pasted over the original Dutch title, which is that for Deel 3 (i.e. pts. 5-8 of the work), having the imprint 'Amsterdam, 1662,' and from which the above title is taken. There is also a MS. index to the plates.
